VIVE LANDED IN THE BOX-SOME HUMOROUS INCIDENTS OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

The long-delayed trial of Sheriff James A. Flack, am Flack, his son, and Joseph Meeks conspiracy with others in obtaining frand a "bogus" divorce of the sheriff and his wife was begun yesterday in the Court of Oyer and Terminer before Judge Barrett. No esses in the case will be called until to-morrow. If is expected that a jury will then have been chosen Five hours were spent yesterday in examining thirty-three talesmen, of whom five were sent to the jurybox. This is jury-getting at the rate of one juror an hour; reasonably good progress, when the public interest in the case and the general prevalence of "opinions" in regard to it among the citizens of New-York are considered. The five selected are George L. Herrick, clerk, No. 20 White-st.; Burton D. Bagley, publisher, No. 35 Bond st.; Charles A. Platt, artist, No. 90 Lexington-ave.; Nathan Erlanger, drygoods, No. 453 me-st.; samuel stern, shirt manufacturer, No. 560

The jury-roll was called by the clerk of the court at 10:30 a. m. The room was crowded, and many lawyers and politicians were present. The Flacks sat which Professor Flint, the secretary, called over the side by side near the counsel table. Mr. Meeks "rubbed" shoulders with "Will." The three defend-were then conferred. They were: ants kept "eyes front" all the time; listened with interest to what went on; and laughed as heartily as anybody else at the curious answers made by some of the unfortunates who were worried as to their fitness for jurorship and adjudged unfit. They seemed to be at their ease, and undoubtedly tried exceedingly hard

The counsel for the defendants are ex Judge Horace Russell, ex-Judge William Fullerton and John H. Bird. To Assistant District Attorney Goff has been given the responsibility of conducting the case for the people. Colonel Fellows and Assistant District Attorney Semple were also in attendance yesterday, and Colonel Fellows took part in the examination of the talesmen. Undoubtedly many of the curlosity-seekers came to see Mrs. Flack, but they were disappointed. Mr. Goff said that she was "in safe keeping," and would come when she was wanted. He declined to give her present address, but said that she had not been "spirited away" again, and would undoubtedly testify for the people within the next few days.

It looked at first as if it would take a week to find a jury. When the midday recess was taken there was only one man in the box-Mr. Herrick-and he asked the Judge if he couldn't be excused until his eleven companions in duty could be found. The Judge said, in as gentle and sympathetic a manner as possible, that he must decline the acquest, and Mr. Herrick looked as if he wished he were "ten thousand miles away." But the afternoon was more feuitful. Both the presecution and the defence showed a disposition to be less exacting, and "No. 5," Mr. Stern, was accepted by the defence, after a consultation, although he admitted

DISPUTING OVER ALDERMANIC SEATS.

Kingston, N. Y., March 10 (special).—There were lively times in the Council Chamber here to day, owing to the contest on Aldermen in the Fourth and Fifth Wards. The Mayor was served with mandates from the Supreme Court enjoining the Council from scating Enoch Carter (Rep.), as Alderman from the Fourth Ward, and Henry Beck (Ind.) in the Fifth Ward. The papers were issued in behalf of Daniel J. Halloran and Patrick J. Euchnan (Dems.), who claim the election. A committee of the Council reported in favor made, but Mayor Newkirk refused to entertain it. He-Corporation Counsel, and would not listen to any motion. Later he declared the old Council dissolved, while a member was trying to make a motion. while a member was trying to make a motion. A turbulent scene followed. Alderman Weiber put the motions. Carter was declared elected, and the Fifth Ward returns were sent back for correction. Toward evening, the members became more quiet. Another session was held, one of the Aldermen in the chair, session was held, one of the Aldermen in the chair. The contested wards were left in the hands of the court. John E. Kraff, the new Mayor, took the chair. A full list of officers was elected without much opposition, and business was transacted rapidly. Although the new Mayor is a Democrat, his hands are effectually tied by a Republican Council.

The delinquent in prompt delivery is believed to be the prominent Broad st. delivery is believed to be the prominent incoming house which has been conspicuous as a bull on Reading since the company was reorganized under the Corbin-Morgan auspices, and a radical change has been made in the Stock Exchange brokers acting for the Philadelphia pool. It is even asserted by those in a position to know the facts that litigation may possibly grow out of discoveries as to how the pool's opera-

The excitement in the Reading crowd on the floor of the Stock Exchange began at the opening of busi-ness. A large crowd of brokers were present around the post, and the bidding almost instantly overwhelmed offers. First sales were made of 200 shares at 35 5 8. 100 at 38 1-2, 500 at 39, 700 at 38 3 4 and 300 at 39. A flight to above 40 quickly followed, and then ran to 41.3-4, and cash stock to 42.3-4 before the corner temporarily culminated. The difference between the prices according to the two methods of buying generally stayed at above 1 per cent through the day, and at one time the premium paid for cash stock was fully 2.3-4 per cent.
